Mass Readings: Pages 96 - 99

Order of Mass: Pages 6 - 60

+++++

First Reading: King David, after being reprimanded by Nathan the prophet, confesses to his adultery with Bathsheba, the wife of Uriah the Hittite, and Nathan pronounces absolution.

Psalm: we can take this psalm as King David's psalm of repentance; equally we can pray it ourselves when we have been absolved of our sins in Confession.

Second Reading: Paul introduces his concept of what is known as justification by faith, a central theme in this epistle: in short we can only be made righteous by faith in God's free gift of grace, not by any human merit.

Gospel: the woman anoints Jesus' feet with ointment, tears, and kisses, demonstrating her love for Him, her warmth, and her sense of sorrow and penitence for her sins. By contrast Simon, the Pharisee (who may have had comparatively little to be penitent about) misses the point and misses out on receiving the grace of God.
